In that I, Lorna Swan, am now departing from our "dearly beloved" school, I would like to leave a few things behind which I won't be needing when I get to H.H.S. As of now, I hereby bequeath the following items to my "dear" underclassmen.

To Eleanor, I leave my ability to never get my assignments in on time, and to continually receive fives. Laree may have my technique for getting my heart broken. She might be able to mend it, I can't seem to. All my books, pencils, papers, poor grades, and unfinished work, I leave to Alan and Jeffie. Ray you can have my "habit" of playing "goodie-goodie" with the teachers so as to get better grades. I'll LET Felix have any good grades, but I hope he doesn't get tired of looking for them. I'll leave my Little Black Book of boy's phone numbers to Grace and Gloria, in hopes that they will share it equally. And last, but of course not least, I leave my love to Andy, so that he may improve, cherish, and hold it forever.

I, Rose Ann Duncan, now preparing to leave this wonderful school, (sniff-sniff) excuse me, please, for the uncontrollable emotions, would like to leave my meager talents and possessions to my lower classmen.

First of all I wish to give my standing with the teachers, after days of thought to Ray Pogue. I have been thinking this over for a long time and I am sure he is most worthy of it. Next I would like to give my ability to be everywhere I shouldn't be to Gloria. It grieves me terribly to give away my books, but I shall bear the grief if someone will offer me a good price. My love for ANY Science I will leave to Nick. My own prescription for relief of a lonely heart, I'll give to Andy, because I know he'll need it. I've had several requests for my height, but I'm sorry to say I can't leave it. And lastly, I want to leave my Young Love to Alan, to remember forever.

I, Coleman Brewer, upon leaving this fine school, bequeath to the following people some of my treasures. To Grace, I leave my ability to tell fine (?) jokes. To Nick, my technique for getting girls around my little finger. To Ray, My pistol, it's always loaded. To Joe, my sideburns, they win my battles for me.

Basketball 1-2, Baseball 1-2, Track 1-2, Plays 1-2.

I, Sandra Richards, upon leaving this "Dearly Loved" school, wish to bequeath to a few of my friends some of my prized possessions.

To Dorothy, I leave my certain "something" which makes boys come running at my slightest wish. To Dennis, I leave my deep friendship toward him in hopes he will remember it. To Grace, I leave my ability to "always" have an Out-Of-Town boy friend. To Gloria I leave my dearest teachers. I do hope you'll take good care of them for me. To Judy, I leave my plump little (?) figure. I would like a new slender figure upon entering H.H.S. To Joe, I leave my ability to get good grades in Algebra, although I don't know how to do the problems. Maybe it will run in the family NATURALLY.

Last Will and Testament

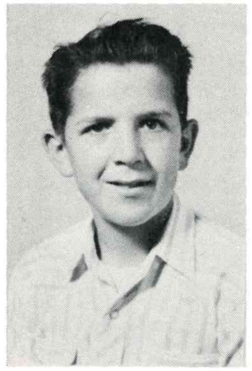
At the end of some rough years in Joseph City School, I, Darrell Bushman, feel it my duty to leave some of my abilities to the LESS FORTUNATE.

I would like to leave my ability to grow hair to Mr. Inman and Mr. Skinner. To Tom I leave my ability to know what my lessons are about and the ability to get them in on time. To Nick, I leave my ability to meet a girl without falling in love with her. To Andy, I will my ability to raise a head of pimples. To Ray I will my seat on the front row which always stays there. To Eleanor I leave my height. I hope they will take care of these things and keep them going well.

Basketball 1-2
Baseball 1-2
Track 1-2
Plays 1-2
Band 1-2

I, Delroy McLaws, wish to bequeath to the following people, as I leave this school, the following things: Alan, you may have all my girlfriends, but I hope you can find some more too. To Ray, I give my great ability to study instead of loaf. Grace, ole buddy, you need my talent of staying quiet and unheard, so, I'll give that to you. Joe take part of my ability to get along with different types of people, I'll need what's left.

Band 1-2, Plays 1-2, Track 1-2, Baseball 1-2, Basketball 1-2, Student Council Representative 2.



I, Edna Faye, at this parting from our dear ole Alma Mater, wish to leave some of my traits and treasured possessions to my lesser classmates left behind. First of all, I leave my ability to be from one minute to a half hour late to everything and anything to Grace, though she seems to be doing pretty well anyway. To my brother, Loran, I leave my love and ability for Algebra. Poor Guy!!! I leave my lovely dishwater blonde hair to Eleanor, because I'm tired of it. I leave my ability to continuously "goof" and get sprained fingers in basketball to anyone who wants it. I leave my ability to play "innocent" and get away with it to Felix, as if he needs it! I would leave my "Angel Kisses" to Laree if it was possible but I'm afraid it isn't. Sorry, Laree. I leave love for Seventh and Eighth grade boys to the Seventh grade girls. I know they'll put it to good use.

I, Bob Williams, wish to leave with the following people several of my possessions:

Andy, you may have my Algebra book and drum it. Alan you may have my permission to use my horse, so he won't have to ride his scooter. Ray, I leave to you Mr. Skinner with my compliments.
